

Agenda*

Registration 08:30-09:15

Strategic Track - Kelvin Theatre	Technical Track - Turin Theatre
09:15-10:00 Welcome & Keynote Speaker “Welcome” John Moor, MD IoT Security Foundation “What will Security Standards and Certification Look Like Ten Years from Now?” - Ross Anderson, Professor of Security Engineering, University of Cambridge
10:00-11:00 Session 1: Big Picture Talks “I Trust 72.4% of People, How Many Things Should I Trust?” - Mike Westmacott, Principal Cybersecurity Consultant at Thales “The Future of IoT Security and “Cybercrime”” - Craig Heath, Director at Franklin Heath	10:00-11:00 Session 1 “Welcome to the technical track” – Jeff Day, BT “Why is IoT Security so Hard and What Can We Do About It? – Some Lessons from the Frontline...” Nick Allott, CEO at Nquiring Minds
Break
11:30-13:00 Session 2: IoT Security in Context “Protecting the Connected Car” - Martin Borrett, CTO at IBM Security Europe “The roles and goals of identity management in future Smart Cities” - Gert Botha, Chief Executive Officer at Hive Technology “Grasping New Technology – Securely” Ian Phillips, Information Security Architect at Roke Manor Research	11:30-13:00 Session 2 “In Silicon we Trust: How to Fix the Internet of Broken Things” - Cesare Garlati, Chief Security Strategist at prpl Foundation “Authenticate Everything – Security for the IoT” - Geert-Jan Schrijen, CTO at Intrinsic-ID “Towards Effective Security Monitoring for IoT” - Siraj Shaikh, Founder & Chief Scientific Officer at CyberOwl
Lunch
14:00-15:30 Session 3: Practical Guides to Improving Security “Supply Chain of Trust” - David Dufour, Cyber Security Architect at Webroot “How not to be a headline for IoT Security” – Richard Marshall, Managing Consultant at Xitex	14:00-15:30 Session 3 “IoT: Attack of the Clone Army?” - Dr Ralf Huuck, Director & Senior Architect at Synopsys “Industrial IoT Security Issues and Solutions” - Chris Shire, Business Development Manager at Infineon “Multos Providing Appropriate Trust for IoT Devices?” - Paul Wilson, Commercial Manager at MAOSCO
Break
16:00-17:30 Session 4: Addressing Security Through Collaboration “Securing the Internet of Things – an Analyst’s View on the Market” - Aapo Markkanen, Principle Analyst at Machina Research “United We Stand; Addressing the Bigger Challenges of IoT Security with Collaboration” Panel Session featuring representatives from the IET, International M2M Council, IoTUK, PRPL Foundation and IoTSF	16:00-17:30 Session 4 “Surely your thing doesn’t need a wire! How to choose an IoT Radio Access Network” - Joe Milbourn, Senior Consultant at The Technology Partnership “The Realities of Maintaining a Secure Software Supply Chain” Christine Gadsby, Director of Global Product Security & Adam Boulton, SVP Security Technology at Blackberry “Weaponising IoT” Ken Munro, Partner at Pen Test Partners
Resume in the Kelvin Theatre for Closing Remarks & 2017 Outlook – John Haine, IoTSF Chairman
17:40-19:00 Drinks Reception

*Subject to change

Book Your Place

Conference Info

Travel Directions to Conference